

NEW YORK

APR 8 1964

STAT

Senator Says Some of CIA's Best Are Red

Washington, April 7 (UPI) — Sen. Milton R. Young (R-N.D.), one of the few men in Washing-

Sen. Milton
Young

ton privy to the Central Intelligence Agency's innermost secrets, said today that many of the best spies the United States has abroad are top Communist party officials.

Young is one of only six Senators who know precisely how much money is appropriated for the supersecret CIA and for what purpose. The funds are concealed in the budgets of dozens of other federal agencies for security purposes.

They'll Work—for a Price

"Many of our most valuable CIA operatives throughout the world are actually high-ranking Communist Party officials," Young wrote in a report to his constituents.

"Some party members—not too sold on Communism—for a price will work for us," he said.

"They find little difficulty in adapting themselves to any kind of political environment."

Young declined to cite any current examples, but he did tell of a Romania agent, high up in his country's secret service, who also worked for the CIA.

"He had so many girl friends, he was one of our most expensive operatives," the Senator said, adding that the agent was caught and shot about a year ago.

IMPERIALIST SPIES

Sen. Milton R. Young (R-N.D.), is one of only six U. S.
Senators privy to the innermost secrets of the super-secret Central Intelligence Agency and its well-concealed budget.
In a report to constituents, Young wrote: "Many of our most valuable CIA operatives in various countries throughout the world are actually high-ranking Communist Party officials." We hope the Senator isn't exaggerating.

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW